

Global Corporate Travel & Expense Policy

Operational Guidelines & Travel Reimbursement Standards

1. Purpose and Scope

This document establishes guidelines and reimbursement policies for all full-time employees, contractors, and executives traveling on official ACME Corporation business.

Employees are expected to exercise good judgment, ensure cost-consciousness, and prioritize personal safety during all corporate travel.

2. Travel Authorization and Pre-Approval

Domestic travel requires written approval from your direct supervisor at least 14 days prior to departure.

International travel requires departmental Vice President (VP) pre-approval at least 30 days prior to departure.

Any total projected trip expense exceeding $2,500 requires secondary authorization from the Finance Director before any tickets are booked.

3. Air Travel Booking Guidelines

All flights must be booked through the ACME Corporate Travel Portal (Navan) at least 21 days in advance to secure optimal commercial fares.

Economy Class is mandatory for all domestic flights and international flights with a total flight duration under 6 hours.

Business Class may be approved for international flights with continuous non-stop flight duration exceeding 6 hours, subject to VP approval.

First Class airfare is strictly prohibited under all circumstances without written exception from the Chief Executive Officer (CEO).

Global Corporate Travel & Expense Policy (Continued)

4. Hotel Accommodations and Nightly Limits

Employees should book standard single-occupancy rooms in preferred corporate hotel chains (Marriott, Hilton, Hyatt).

Domestic Tier-2 Cities (e.g., Austin, Denver, Atlanta): Maximum nightly rate allowance is $180 before taxes.

Domestic Tier-1 Cities (e.g., New York, San Francisco, Boston): Maximum nightly rate allowance is $250 before taxes.

International Travel: Maximum nightly rate allowance is $280 before local taxes and occupancy charges.

Luxury accommodations, room upgrades, and executive suites are non-reimbursable.

5. Daily Meals and Incidental Expenses (Per Diem)

ACME Corporation operates on a daily meal allowance (per diem) basis during business travel:

Domestic Daily Meal Per Diem: $75 per day breakdown: Breakfast $15, Lunch $25, Dinner $35.

International Daily Meal Per Diem: $110 per day breakdown: Breakfast $20, Lunch $35, Dinner $55.

Alcoholic beverages are strictly excluded from personal per diem claims. Alcoholic drinks may only be claimed if incurred during pre-approved client entertainment dinners.

Personal tips and gratuities are covered up to a maximum of 20% on meal bills and $5 per hotel luggage service.

Global Corporate Travel & Expense Policy (Continued)

6. Ground Transportation and Mileage Reimbursement

Public transit, airport shuttle services, and standard rideshares (UberX, Lyft standard) are preferred for local transit.

Rideshare charges are capped at $65 per single trip unless extreme weather or surge pricing is documented.

Rental cars are permitted only when public transit or ridesharing is demonstrably more expensive or impractical. Standard intermediate or compact class must be selected.

Personal vehicle business mileage is reimbursed at the federal rate of $0.67 per mile, covering fuel, maintenance, and insurance.

7. Travel Health, Insurance, and Emergency Protocols

All international travelers are automatically enrolled in the ACME Global Medical and Emergency Evacuation Insurance policy (Coverage up to $500,000 per incident).

In case of medical or security emergency abroad, contact the Global Travel Assistance Hotline 24/7 at +1-800-555-0199 immediately.

8. Non-Reimbursable Personal Expenses

The following expenses will not be reimbursed by the company: parking fines, traffic citations, flight change fees due to negligence, hotel minibar snacks, in-room pay-per-view movies, and laundry service for trips under 5 days duration.